Reviews

*This pdf might be well worth a study, and a lot better than other. It really is simplistic but excitement inside the fifty percent in the book. Its been printed in an exceedingly straightforward way which is just after i finished reading this ebook through which really modified me, modify the way i believe.

Now designed specifically for adolescents or adults with special needs, this practical resource is packed with activities and games for developing social skills. Social competence is an essential aspect of our quality of life and this resource will help you to develop these skills with this client group. The book includes: over 60 activities to develop social skills in body language, the way we talk, conversations and assertiveness; over a years worth of work on developing social skills; a short introduction to working with adolescents and adults with social skills difficulties; an assessment of social skills and planning sheet for intervention; ideas for group cohesion activities to use within your groups; and, forms and evaluation sheets to help with the smooth running of groups. All activities available to download to print out and use. This second edition will reposition the original Talkabout and Talkabout Activities as the second of three texts for adolescents and adults, mirroring the three titles published for children: Developing Self Awareness and Self Esteem; Developing Social Skills; and, Developing Friendship and Skills. The first in the adult series published in 2014 (Talkabout for Adults). Alex Kelly is a speech and language therapist who specialises in working with children and adults who have low self esteem, and difficulty with their social skills and friendship skills. She spent 23 years working as a speech and language therapist in the NHS but now runs her own company - Alex Kelly Ltd. She provides social skills training and consultancy to schools and organisations across the UK and overseas. Her company also provides speech and language therapy in a number of schools in the south of England...
