This circuit has had seventy haptisms. So in this, it leads the district. Eleven Sunday schools with five hundred and fifty pupils, and thirteen day schools indicate the vigor with which the work is conducted in this flourishing mission. A partial famine ran up the orphans to one hundred and fifty-seven, which tried the finances of the agents in charge of the work. Miss Reed has an interesting work among her seventy-five lepers. She now has two complete establishments--.ne for the men smile away from the quarters of the women. She also superintends four preachers, who travel and teach the people for miles around. This looks as though Miss Reed was in the General Conference. The many friends of Miss Reed will be glad to learn she is in...
