Until the present time such a revision has been made impossible by uncontrollable circumstances, and naturally it is with much satisfaction and pleasure that we are now able to present to the public a completely revised text, in the preparation of which neither time nor expense has been spared in an endeavor to produce the best text-book that modern thought and modern workmanship are capable of producing. In method of presentation this book is completely removed from any other shorthand text-book heretofore published. It will be found distinctive in every feature; and we are sanguine that it will be regarded by teachers and students as distinctly modern and much in advance of all other books of this nature.
