AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2007. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This book is a clear and unequivocal indictment, not only of men (written by a man), but of the civilization they have produced. By eliminating women from the equation at the very beginning, a disastrous cycle of war and destruction was begun which continues to today, when the final bill is being paid on men s wanton reign of destruction: the planet itself is beginning to wobble. Not to mention the continuing violence and rape from one end of the globe to another, another fringe benefit of progress. The lies begun back then (Garden of Eden), continue to haunt both men and women today, putting the lie to civilization -how civil can it be, built as it was/is on theft through blood and forced slavery? Men too are trapped in the charade of the sexes, having to pretend at who and what we are. Even the most powerful men, the ones who own and run the world, are helpless to escape the manhood trap they ve set for themselves. Out of balance, their testosterone-obsessed quest runs riot. Their deluded script substitutes money for mommy. Woman DOWN through the Ages, How Lies have Shaped our Lives, is a capsule summary of civilization under men s thumbprint. It s a light-hearted romp through the tragedy of history, a nightmare we ve yet to awaken from. We re still in a deep-sleep of tradition, lulled by the enslaving and enchanting tricks of the marketplace. There s still hope. We know how we got here, through false promises and premises, and the lies that sustain life as we know it. We can still get back to the Garden. We didn t...
