He is a physiatrist, a doctor of medicine specializing in physical and rehabilitation medicine. I used to refer most of my patients to him, because he was/is the best in Hudson County, if not in the entire state of NJ; he would take his time doing a procedure, meticulous in evaluating patients, and his feedback report had always been a pleasure to read. Anyway, as my physiatrist was doing my NCS and EMG, we came to talk about many other things. He mentioned his missionary work in India and his touring of Asian countries but the Philippines. He wished he had visited the country, because as it turned out later, he ended up in Jersey City where many of his patients are Filipinos. Jersey City has a large population of Pinoys. He regretted the fact that he...
