He was given a chance by the company to educate himself in air-brake work. He received instructions from the man, whom he later succeeded, who was in charge of the air-brake room and who also gave instructions to men in handling air brakes on equipment. That was before industrial education or rehabilitation was thought of. The Chairman. To-morrow, at the conclusion of the morning session there will be a picture taken of the delegates and visitors, in Union Square Park, right across Powell Street. If there is no objection the session will adjourn. in connection TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 21--MORNING SESSION. CHAIRMAN, GEORGE A. KINGSTON. COMMISSIONER, ONTARIO WORKMEN S COMPENSATION BOARD. COMPENSATION COSTS. Mr. French. The chairman of this morning s session is Mr. George A. Kingston, of the Ontario board. Mr. Kingston has the advantage of having attended these sessions, I think, more frequently than any other member of the International Association. The association was formed in the city of Lansing, Mich., by, of course, a very small group, and the first real convention was held in Seattle, in 1915, and ever since that time Mr. Kingston has acquired and fully developed the convention habit. We are certainly glad to have him take the trip from Toronto, because his experience and ability in our particular line of work have made him one of the leaders in compensation history. Those who attended the Toronto convention will always...
