Battle-Ship Iowa, in Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, July 10, 1898, the Sunday Following the Naval Battle of Santiago Last Sunday, the 3d of July, no divine service was held on this battle-ship. The weather was favorable, but other circumstances forbade. Our usual hour for worshipping God found us engaged in one of the most remarkable and effective naval engagements recorded in the annals of our country. The voice of prayer and the singing of praise gave place to the roar of our deadly guns and the various other activities attending a bloody conflict. However long we may live, we shall never forget the events of that day! The sudden call to general quarters; the cries passing with lightning rapidity from mouth to mouth that the Spanish ships were leaving the harbor; the orderly rallying of officers and men at their respective stations; the rattle of the chains hoisting our ammunition; the roar of our guns from the turrets and...

This book is definitely not simple to begin on studying but quite fun to see. I actually have read and that I am sure that I will go on to read through yet again once again in the foreseeable future. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
