The joy of the Lord is forever! I highly recommend Laughter in Heaven to families, psychologists, and chaplains as a guide for children and pre-adolescents in their formative understanding of death. This heart-warming story allows children to feel more comfortable with their own feelings of sadness, as well as feel a sense of relief that their loved one is alive in spirit and in their own precious memories. As a pediatric chaplain, I have yet to find a Christian children s book on grief that is as engaging, scripturally sound, and enjoyable to read as this one. Truly, this will be a favorite book that will be helpful to a child after the loss of a loved one. -Rev. Pamela L. Taylor, D.Min., BCC, Sr. Pediatric Chaplain, Texas Children s Hospital Houston, TX In 20 years of pastoral ministry I ve presided at over 500 funerals. During these years, on countless occasions, concerned parents have asked me how to talk with their children about death. Jean Van Meter has given us a helpful gift. Not only does she capture the subtleties of grief, she also articulates hope in Christ in ways that children of all ages can grasp. -The Rev. Dr. David G. Oravec, Frederick, MD Grief is about loss, the struggle to grasp that a loss has grasped us. One of the hardest experiences in our grief walk is not just about the loss. Questions arise: Who am I? Where am I? What will happen to me? Will I be okay? Why did my loved one have to die? This book speaks to and about children. It will be that rare gift...
